NO. 44

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Hon. O. W. Lester went to Frankfort Tuesday.

—Several of our citizens are preparing to take the benefit of the low rates and go to see Niagara Falls.

—Joe Lee, colored, and Thomas Golden, white, were given 30 days by Judge Stinson last Saturday for petit larceny.

—Miss Gertrude Lester entertained a number of her friends last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Young, of Atlanta, Ga.

—Williamburg is without a marshal now and everything moves along so nicely, we don't think our city council will find it necessary to elect a new one.

—The Whitley County Bible Society will hold its annual meeting next Sunday evening at the Christian church. Dr. S. G. Savage, of Winchester, will be present.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Denham, Col. Thomas O'Mara and daughter, Miss Anna, Masters Walter and Sam Deuham and Mr. Beaufort, of Gethsemane, who has been visiting Mr. Denham, spent Saturday and Sunday at Cumberland Falls.

—A party was given by the young people of the town at the home of Miss Tutt in South Williamsburg last Tuesday evening in honor of the young ladies, who are visiting here. Nearly all of the young people of the town were present and everyone spent a most delightful evening.

—Hon. D. G. Colson was here last week looking after his interests in the Congressional race. He says he will be a candidate if he can get a primary election, but will not go into a convention. There will be a meeting of the county chairmen at London, Aug. 16th, for the purpose of deciding how the candidate shall be chosen. It is understood that White and Adams both favor a convention.

—The republican candidates opened up the campaign Monday at Pleasant View, where a large crowd assembled to hear the speaking, drink whiskey and have a generally good time. Everything passed off quietly until about 2 o'clock, when Ewell Siler and Jeff Woods became engaged in a difficulty over a lawsuit now pending in the circuit court here in which Woods is a witness against Siler. Siler cut Woods seven times with a knife, but it is now thought that he will soon recover, as none of them reached the hollow. Siler and Woods are both prosperous farmers of the county.

—R. McKee was in Knoxville last week. W. L. McCarty, of Lincoln, was here last week visiting his mother. Miss Mamie Householder, of Middleboro, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Jones. Misses Edna and America Moss, of Pineville, are visiting their uncle, Dr. E. S. Moss. Mrs. Collins, of Hustonville, who has been visiting at Col. O'Mara's returned home last Thursday. Mrs. J. D. Adkins has returned from Campbellville, where she has been visiting her relatives for several weeks. Miss Miller, of Greenfield, O., is visiting Mrs. Prof. Jones, her sister. Elder J. E. Terry is in Montgomery his old home for a few days. Mrs. J. W. Sullivan is at home after an extended visit to Middleboro. Mrs. Cunis Gathur has gone to Asheville, N. C. Misses Nell Freeman and Ann Finley left Monday for Keels Station in Knox county.

THOSE WHO ARE POSTED.—Will tell you that the finest and healthiest summer resorts in the northwest are located along the Wisconsin Central Lines, among which are Lake Villa, Fox Lake, Antioch, Burlington, Mukwonago, Waukegan, Neenah, Waupaca, Elfield, Ashland and Duluth. Tourists and pleasure seekers figuring on their next summer's vacation should bear this in mind and before selecting a route drop a line to Jas. C. Pond, General Passenger Agent of the Wisconsin Central Lines, at Milwaukee, Wis., and he will send you maps, time tables and guide books containing valuable information, which are mailed free upon application.

—In all Persia there are only 20 miles of railroad.

BOSTON.

Interesting Letter From Dorothy Dorchester.

Boston, July 30.—"See Rome and die" is a saying we are all familiar with; the average Bostonian would say, "See Boston and die!" they think there is only one Boston and this would be a wretchedly poor, miserable world without this "Hub of the Universe." And it is of all American cities, the most interesting from an historical point of view. There is an air of culture and refinement about the city as indescribable as it is undeniable, born of puritanical, even severe lives of her people. One breathes morality in Boston; things tolerated, smiled upon in more cosmopolitan New York are immediately frowned down in Boston. Another thing which always strikes a stranger within the gates of this city, is the extremely narrow, crowded streets in the business part of the town; only one thing will be found narrower and that is the minds and opinions of the Bostonians.

They have a vague idea that it is an awful fate to have been born anywhere, but Boston, and of all dire calamities to have opened your eyes to light of this world in the South or West is the worst. When you hurriedly announce the fact that your home is in "the wild and woolly West," they are disappointed, that your costume does not consist of a blanket, instead of your love of a Paris hat, feathers for head dress, tomahawks and six shooters in lieu of fan and parasol.

Joking aside an educated, well governed, well groomed woman from either the West or the South is a revelation to Bostonians. We can forgive them for their pride in their city, for it is very beautiful, not the beauty of the mushroom towns of the far West, but solid substantial business houses, well paved, cleanly swept streets, and—well it would take a clever pen than mine to tell of block after block of magnificent residences on either side of Commonwealth Avenue, houses of millionaires whose bank accounts are only exceeded in length by their lines of ancestry, apartment houses which beggar description, the cheapest flat, excuse me, apartment, renting for $2,400 per year, consisting perhaps of seven or nine rooms. Steam heat, gas and electric lights, attendants in livery. The Charlesgate, in the fashionable Back Bay, is I believe is one of the handsomest of these houses.

Brookline is the richest suburb in the world. Time and space forbid a description, besides my stock of qualifying adjectives is running low. There are dozens of small towns clustered around Boston. Cambridge, where Harvard College is situated, the finest school in America, second to none in the old world; the birth place of Oliver Wendell Holmes, James Russell Lowell, Longfellow and Hawthorne. Charlestown has the famous navy yard and Bunker Hill monument.

Boston without Bunker Hill monument would be like a cake without sugar. One can't help but feel awed by this immense shaft of granite towering 221 feet in the air. The corner stone laid by Gen. Lafayette; the oration delivered by Daniel Webster.

Close your eyes for a moment and drop back 119 years, see those stern faced heroes of the revolution right on this very spot fighting, fighting for liberty and for life. The cycles of time rolled by and dropped into oblivious sea, again the march of troops and boom of cannons echoed o'er the land. It is brother against brother now, and the old monument stood a silent reproach to the sons of America fighting to the death like mad men.

But peace, white winged and pure, reigns supreme over our fair country to day. The wars of 1775 and 1861 are but things to talk of, and as Charles Sumner says, "let the bugles sound the truce of God to the whole world forever." There you've dreamed enough, come back to Fin de Siecle Boston and those steps in Bunker Hill monument. Oh, girls I pray when you climb to the top of the monument wear loose stays and old shoes; withal you'll feel the next morning as though you had been found on a bargain counter, and patriotism will be at low ebb.

The public gardens are noted for their beautiful flowers; 18,000 geraniums alone having been planted there this summer. Hydran gas, roses, palma, ferns, cactus and other tropical plants in great profusion, with statues, fountains and lakes make it a lovely "breathing spot" right in the heart of the city.

The Commons with towering trees and imposing statues, then the glittering dome of the State House. And cemeteries with tombstones like exclamation points right on Tremont, there as though "to point a moral or adorn a tale." Time stained stones bearing dates as far back as 1666. Unique, yes, this having antediluvian burying grounds in the business part of a city. But to my mind uncanny and gruesome even if they have occupied their resting places for a couple of centuries. Oftimes when rushing with the pushing, hustling, jostling throng up the street or coming from the theatres at night, I look at those old tombstones silent and gray dimly seen in the blue glare of the electric light and wonder if aught disturbs their dreamless slumber. But then Boston wouldn't be Boston without these grave yards, they being one of the features of the place, making it different from any other city in the country.

(CONCLUDED NEXT ISSUE.)

BROOKHEAD, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Bro. A. J. Pike had a very fine cow killed by the train a few days ago.

—There will be a praise meeting at Gum Sulphur next Sunday. All are invited to attend.

—The public school will begin at our school-house, the 6th. Mrs. Mattie Carter and J. F. Watson have been employed as teachers.

—Mrs. Harriet Adams, of Cleveland, O., spent two nights here last week, lecturing on the temperance cause and organizing a W. C. T. U.

—Miss R. L. Yeaky has gone to Corbin to do some millinery work for the good people of that town. Mr. J. B. Pike, of Pine Hill, was here last Sunday.

—Mr. George E. Pointer and Mrs. W. H. Colyer were notified by telegram that their sister, who lives at Cincinnati, O., was thought to be dying, and they both took the noon train for that city.

—The democratic convention held at Mt. Vernon last Saturday nominated Mr. George Fish as their candidate for county judge and we hope that all the good people of this county, who feel an interest in the welfare of this county, will come up and help us elect a good man for that high office.

—Mr. Thomas Cherry and wife were at Rowland last week. J. L. Carson, who has been here for a few months, working in the interest of the Davis Sewing Machine Company and whose home is at Forest City, N. C., was summoned home last Monday to attend the burial of his sister. Miss Jennie Payne of Crab Orchard, has been visiting Mrs. Dr. J. M. Clark this week. Miss Lizzie Herron, Mrs. Dr. J. M. Clark, E. Walden, Miss Pearl Newland, J. L. Carson and Richard Pike all went to Green Briar Springs last Saturday.

KOREA, CHINA AND JAPAN.—The badness of Korea appears to be the cause of the trouble between Japan and China. The nominal ruler of Korea is unable to maintain order in his country. There have been frequent uprisings, which have seriously disturbed not only the business interests of the country, but those of Japan, which has extensive trade with her. Indeed, nearly the whole banking and monetary system of Korea is under Japanese auspices. China dominates the ruling powers of Korea, and Japan controls the trade. Both China and Japan have heretofore gone to the rescue when the internal troubles of Korea have been beyond the power of that country to control. Under a treaty made in 1885 China and Japan agreed to keep their armed forces out of the troublesome peninsula, but Japan has so much material interest there, and the conditions of the country were so precarious, that she found it necessary to be in fighting trim all the time. Hence the recent shooting. It is intimated, too, that Japan wants a war that will unify her people at home. The rapid acquirement of Western civilization has not been without heavy expense, and the tax payers are reported to be rebellious.

The Blackwell, O. T., Eagle states that our former county man, Mr. W. A. Brooks, was elected one of the directors of the Farmers and Merchants Bank there and says of him: "Although not personally known to many of our citizens, is known to be a worthy citizen of Kentucky, and is largely interested in the wholesale paint and oil business at Louisville, Ky. His abundant financial resources makes him an invaluable member of the board of directors. The citizens of Blackwell and vicinity are to be congratulated upon having a gentleman of Mr. Brooks' high standing and abundant capital connected with an institution in our city."

—A heavy double-headed extra freight train broke into three pieces near Danville Monday night, the second section running down grade for a mile or more and striking the tail end with terrific force, destroying five cars loaded with tobacco, wheat and furniture and blockading travel 12 hours. There were no persons injured, but the railroad sustained a loss of several thousand dollars.

—Two young burglars, John Willis and Jas. Griffin, who broke into the store of W. O. Newell, of Bronston, last week, were arrested near Burkeville, on the Cumberland river, with their boat full of plunder. They were brought to Somerset and lodged in jail. Both have done time in the penitentiary.

—Diplomats at Washington express the opinion that the Japanese were guilty of a serious mistake in sinking the transport Kow Shing, and one which will cost the Japanese government dearly. The vessel was under the British flag and as war had not been declared, it is held the traffic she was engaged in was legitimate.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—Mr. George Faris and family have moved into their new residence on Richmond Ave.

—The railroads have raised the rate to the Washington K. P. encampment to $15 and the local Knights are raising a howl.

—The Hemphill store house has received a new coat of paint and looks like a circus poster. Yellow, green, white and in fact all the colors of the rainbow represented.

—Miss Katie Landram, who has been visiting friends in Muncie, Ind., was married to Mr. Charles K. McLugin in Cincinnati last Saturday. Mr. McLugin is engaged in the drug business at Albany, Ind. They are visiting the bride's parents here and will return to Albany next week.

—We have had the pleasure of a visit through the green house and flower gardens of Miss Fannie Bishop. Her stock of flowers and plants is an unusually large one for a town of this size. We can't see why it is that people order bouquets and cut flowers from the city when there is such an enterprise as this at home.

—Miss Della Hughes is visiting relatives in Hustonville. Mr. Bruns De Valcourt, of Chicago, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. D. M. Lackey. Mr. J. T. Eason, who ranks in Class 1 of the railway mail clerks, is here on a visit to his mother. Miss Mary and Georgia Miller and May Hughes are visiting Mrs. Robert Hughes and attending the Lawrenceburg fair. Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Joe Rogers are visiting at Mrs. Pattie Gill's. Dr. W. S. Elkin and wife, of Atlanta, are the guests of Miss Jennie Duncan.

—The concert at the court-house last Monday evening was attended by a large and cultivated audience and all were delighted with the performance. The overture, "Elks' Reception," was a splendid piece of instrumentation and under the direction of Mr. Homer Batson, principal violinist, won well merited applause. Mr. Batson is master of the king of instruments and ranks with the best in the profession. The vocal solos of Miss Chaetina MacGregor were superb and the ovation she received was complete. Her voiced showed the highest culture and her brilliant cadenzas and trills called forth unstinted applause. Miss Lula Batson's instrumental performances and songs were as charming as they were wonderful; her "Paraphrase de Concert, Old Black Joe," by Kimbel, being a marvel of execution that delighted the audience and called forth a well merited encore. The recitations by Messrs. Martin D. Hardin and Casey M. Gwaley were first-class and received abundant applause.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Seventeen years ago, Aug. 1st, the agent and operator at this station was installed here by Hon. W. T. Knott, of Lebanon.

—July 29, 50 years ago Dr. Scarbrough, now a citizen of this county, heard a great speech made by Henry Clay, of Rolla, N. C.

—Fritz Krueger is on trial to day, Thursday, charged with having fired four shots at another German named Lichteiter, a few nights since.

—It appears that some of our republican friends are anxious for their candidate for county judge to withdraw from the race but the prospects are that he will run from "end to end."

—Some are prone to grumble on account of large purchases of tools for county road working purposes. Let the good work go on, more tools better roads and if some of the implements are used for other purposes it is no loss to the general public.

—Mr. Milton Hiatt is improving. Dr. Peyton was here a few days since. Judge Alcorn was with us Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Miller are visiting relatives in Garrard. Dr. Maples, a female physician, was here from East Bernstadt, Wednesday. Mrs. Adams, a lecturer, was here three days this week. L. T. and A. W. Stewart were in from Wildie, Tuesday.

—The railroads of the United States carry in a year 600,000,000 passengers and transport 800,000,000 tons of freight.

"I know an old soldier who had chronic diarrhoea of long standing to have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Edward Shumpik, a prominent druggist of Minneapolis, Minn. "I have sold the remedy for seven years and consider it superior to any other medicine now on the market for bowel complaints." 25 and 50c bottles of this remedy for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford, Ky.

Kenneth Pasmore had the good fortune to receive a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when three members of his family were sick with dysentery. This small bottle cured them all and he had some left which he gave to Geo. W. Baker, a prominent merchant of the place, Lexington, N. C., and it cured him of the same complaint. When troubled with dysentery, diarrhoea, colic or cholera morbus give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result. The praise that naturally follows its introduction and use has made it very popular. 25 and 50c bottles for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford, Ky.

My boy was taken with a disease resembling bloody flux. The first thing I thought of was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Two doses of it settled the matter and cured him sound and well. I heartily recommend this remedy to all persons suffering from a like complaint. I will answer any inquiries regarding it when stamped enclosed. I refer to any county official as to my reliability. Wm. Keach, J. P., Primory, Campbell county, Tenn. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford, Ky.

Judge Jos. Holt, of Kentucky, one of the last conspicuous actors in the tragedy of the assassination of President Lincoln and the trial and execution of the assassin, died in Washington Wednesday, aged 55. He was judge advocate general at the time of the assassination, and as such conducted the military prosecution against Mrs. Surratt and others, afterwards hanged. The criticisms on his prosecution of Mrs. Surratt and his efforts against her pardon drove him into retirement and many stories are told of ghosts and goblins haunting his nights to avenge the part he took against her woman. He was born in Breckinridge county, this State, and during his long life held many offices of trust and honor. He was commissioner of patents under Buchanan, who afterwards made him postmaster general. On the retirement of John B. Floyd, he was given charge of the war department and afterwards served as judge advocate general. He was an eminent lawyer and for years the rival of S. S. Prentiss.

The Iowa democrats in convention, which nominated a State ticket, gave no uncertain sound on the tariff question. They commend the letter of President Cleveland to Mr. Wilson and demand that the democratic pledges made in the National platform be carried out in good faith. Ex-Gov. Boies electrified his hearers with a ringing speech, in which he characterized those who are willing to retrace a single step from the position assumed in 1892, who would surrender an iota of the principle for which we then fought and won, as unworthy of the name of democrats and ought to sail under their proper colors in the republican ranks. The party is thoroughly united and feels sure of victory. The Florida State convention also endorsed Mr. Cleveland and the Wilson bill. If the recalcitrant Senators are wise they will read the handwriting on the wall and stand no longer in the way of the redemption of every party pledge.

No agreement has been reached by the conferees on the tariff bill and the chances are slim for an early settlement of the question that has vexed the country so long. The people are patient and long suffering, but they will not stand everything and they are nearly ready to visit their vengeance on the whole tea party that is obstructing the measure of relief, for which the country is looking and longing.

The rioters at Chicago didn't know what danger they were, or they would have desisted sooner. The Federal troops had orders to shoot to kill, when firing was commanded, and sharpshooters were selected to pick out the more active and take them down. With the lesson they had and the one they have since learned, rioters will be a little more wary in future.

Prohibition has made rapid strides in Mississippi, there being left only 7 counties in the 75 where whisky is sold. Hinds county, which includes Jackson, the capital of the State, went dry Tuesday by 200 majority, though the city voted two to one for whisky. The prohibitionists claim that they will soon have the State solid.

Dr. Godfrey Hunter, who got a taste of Congress once because of democratic dissensions in the 3d district, has been renominated for the same office and has gone on the raging stump with a vengeance. Our own Col. Bradley will assist him at several points and oratory will be on tap from now until the close of November.

War has been declared between China and Japan and the work of weeding out those miserable heathens will be waged in earnest. They are as numerous as flies and the loss of a few millions will never be felt. So far Japan has greatly the advantage of the dispute, as she is in intelligence, if not in numbers.

The populists were to nominate a candidate for Congress yesterday in a convention at Harrodsburg. J. O. Sutherland, of Anderson, was the lamb suggested for the sacrifice. The race is now made up and with three Madison candidates "agin" him, the "pop" will never be known in the race.

SENATOR GORMAN is not all powerful in Maryland if he did run one little district convention. A meeting was held at Frederick, which not only adopted resolutions endorsing Mr. Cleveland and demanding the passage of the Wilson bill, but demanded the resignation of the traitorous Senator.

RAILROAD stocks are bad investments. During the year stocks to the amount of $2,850,334,572 paid no dividend. The officers and men got all there was to take.

CLEVELAND makes even his enemies praise him. Senator Hill, who at heart hates him worse than the devil does holy water, said of him in his speech before the Senate: "I have known Mr. Cleveland long and well, and whatever may have been our differences, one thing I know well of him; he considers public questions slowly, deliberately, honestly, sincerely."

After a meeting at Union they met on a train and engaged in a heated controversy, in which the lie was given recklessly, personal epithets were hurled at each other and hints of a duel were thrown out. They were finally calmed down by the conductor, and went on to fill their next joint appointment.

—The increasing importance of the militia for quelling internal disturbances and its potential strength in case of war has led Gen. Curtis, of New York, to offer a bill in Congress that the militia consist of every able-bodied citizen between the ages of 18 and 45, the organization to be known as the National Guard of the States, and the unorganized as the reserve militia, to be called into action by the president, when he deems it necessary.

Lincoln County Teachers' Institute.

Tuesday's session opened on time, with prayer by Prof. Lumley, who being unable to obtain the necessary requisites for music, proceeded to the immediate opening of the work assigned for the morning.

Arithmetic was treated for a few moments by Mr. Brough in his usual brief manner, who was followed by H. S. Young, who threw much light upon the subject. Miss Thurman treated some points quite neatly. Then taken up by the conductor, who talked quite lengthily and sensibly, giving various plans for leading pupils into the intricacies of mathematics. At this point came Dr. J. G. Carpenter, who always shows an interest in and never fails to come among the teachers and affiliate with them. He never fails to interest, instruct and cause the institute to regret when he concludes to quit. His subject, Digestion, was handled in his sensible, simple, plain, instructive way and caused some to see many points upon which they had been the violators of the laws of nature.

Mental mathematics was introduced by C. H. Holmes and continued by the conductor and others. Miss Kate Blain was made query master.

The afternoon exercises opened per order of program. Reading being the subject, it was introduced by C. H. Holmes, followed in succession by Misses Thurman, Carter, Kay, Owsley and others. Thoroughly exhausted by Lumley. The subject, Study of Words, introduced by M. J. Brough, who was followed by Misses Enoch, Blain, Mr. McClure, J. H. Dalton, N. W. Hughes and others. The conductor then closed the subject. The next was Language Study, which was left entirely to the conductor through the utter indifference of the teachers. Adjourned to 8:30, Wednesday, Aug. 1.

WEDNESDAY A. M.

Met pursuant to an adjournment. Led in to the Throne of Grace by N. W. Hughes. Singing by many of the members. Proceeded to business by resuming yesterday's work. Grammar was taken in regular order and subject opened by Mr. Dye. The teachers seemed to be afraid of the subject until handled by the conductor, when they were somewhat relieved. Composition being called, all assignments on the matter were promptly answered and the same was left with the conductor. Adjourned to 1:30 P. M.

P. M.

Opened on time by having music from the members of the Institute, Miss Georgia Lewis at organ. History being the subject, it was introduced by T. W. Jones; discussed by Holmes, Brough, Thomas and the conductor, who presented quite an interesting outline, which was pregnant with very valuable knowledge. Physiology coming next in order, it was introduced by N. W. Hughes and discussed by Miss Thurman. At this point Dr. O'Bannon was introduced, who proceeded to discuss Hygiene, also the eye, which was quite interesting. Adjourned until 8:30 Thursday.

Wednesday afternoon, the very dignified Mr. Holmes was seen running wildly about in a neighbor's yard. Being a little curious to know what was the matter, we found that he was chasing a specimen of the genus fella to count its claws. Pretty soon the cat went over the fence and at the same time a liguam vitæ smile passed over the young man's face and he went home a "sadder if not a wiser man." He came to the conclusion that the animal had about ten claws on each foot, each touched with fire.

THURSDAY A. M.

Opened on time. Music by the members, Miss Nora Phillips at the organ.

Returned to some work of yesterday which had been laid over. Grading was the matter on hand and discussed by Misses Kay, Blaine and Messrs. Dalton, Collier and continued by the conductor. Miss Helen Thurmond presented herself for enrollment and was welcomed to the fold.

Mrs. J. M. Hubbard and Prof. W. C. Grinstead were welcomed with much kind feeling on the part of the institute and requested to take part in the proceedings.

After recess, returned to Geography, a remnant from yesterday; introduced by H. S. Young. Misses Owsley and White and Mrs. Eubanks discussed the subject clearly and closed by the conductor.

Adjourned until 1:30 P. M.

P. M.

1:30 found Miss Nora Phillips at the organ surrounded by many members of the institute dispensing sweet music. Resumed work by handling school government. This being passed the institute, took up teaching in connection with apparatus, which was handled so artistically that none could take offense, while many will go away with splinters in their cuticles.

After recess, the Teachers' Library was taken into consideration, being introduced by Miss Georgia Lewis, J. W. Acton, Elder C. M. Young, then turned over to the conductor. The subject having been removed Mr. Anderson, Miss Beck, Miss Staggs and Mr. Young, show some interest in the matter and expressed their views. Proceeded to the organization of County Teachers' Association.

C. H. Holmes elected pres., Miss Kate Blain vice-pres., Miss Jennie West sec., and treas.

The following district vice-presidents were elected: Waynesburg, H. S. Young, Hustonville, Miss Julia Staggs, Crab Orchard, Miss Leah Steger, Stanford, Miss Cettie Thurman. Adjourned to Friday.

We have been so busy that we have not had the time to devote as much to the Institute as we wished, and consequently had to rely entirely on the secretaries for the reports, which they have kindly furnished. So far as we have been able to judge, it has been a very pleasant and profitable meeting. Prof. Lumley is a thorough man and has done work that will tell in the school houses during the coming year.

Mr. Brough says he is starting a menagerie and has found a gray and a red fox. He had better be careful or he might be locked in himself, though one could hardly say to what order of pachyderm he belongs.

The prettiest of the secretaries is responsible for the following.

There is a strange state of affairs among the lady members of the Institute. Some of them are always hunting the North star. Others are more interested in their Ho(h)mes, a few would like to be White without the use of cosmetics, and they do say that one has found the "fabled fountain of youth," and is to be forever young. Another doesn't care to be young and actually admitted that she was brought up in ante bellum days.

What's the matter with Mr. White? When roll was called he was out of sight. Girls don't feel and nor look forsaken. They say he's having his measure taken, not by the undertaker either, but for further information apply to Mr. Rupley. The young men seem determined to follow Greley's advice and go Westward.

Supt. W. H. McMurtry, of Garrard, honored the Institute with his presence yesterday.

Miss Alma Pope has returned home after a delightful visit to friends in Stanford. She was accompanied by Miss Mary Bright, who will be her guest during the fair.—Advocate. Mr. Logan Denny's horse fell on him at the Danville fair, Wednesday, but we are glad to say that he was not badly enough hurt to keep him from attending Miss Bowman's party that night. The current issue of the Illustrated Kentucky contains excellent pictures of Mrs. I. F. Steele and Misses Lizzie Twidwell and Jessie Dean Cook. It is a trio of beauty and loveliness hard to exceed. Misses P. M. McRoberts, W. H. Shanks and J. H. Houghton attended the Richmond Fair. The two former tarried until this week, unable to tear themselves away from the bright scenes and beautiful women. Miss Laura Carter gave a picnic at Hales Well, Tuesday, to the Miss Lyne and her friends to the number of 30. Mrs. A. W. Carpenter assisted Mrs. Ed Carter in serving the lunch and that and every other event of the day was greatly enjoyed. Misses C. E. Tate and S. W. Those who attended the tea given by Miss Anne Shanks at her lovely home Tuesday enjoyed a feast of good things and an evening of genuine pleasure. As a hostess Miss Shanks is unexcelled and as a cateress Mrs. Shanks is par excellence. The menu consisted of a variety of meats, salads, ices, fruits, etc., and was served in courses and discussed with avidity. The evening was a delightful one in every respect.

A serious charge.—A dispatch from Danville says that John Cosby and Jason Blackerty, who have been running a butcher shop at Junction City, have been arrested for stealing their neighbors' cows and disposing of the meat. A number have disappeared but the evidence is mostly circumstantial and they say they will have no trouble whatever in clearing themselves. Cosby has a sister worth $40,000 or $50,000, who has employed eminent counsel to defend him. Blackerty is a man pretty handy with his pistol and a personal altercation may result from his arrest.

Later. They were held in $200 bail to the circuit court.

The handsome country home of Mr. and Mrs. Forester Reid was the scene of brilliancy and beauty Wednesday evening. The spacious grounds were illuminated and the large mansion lighted throughout, giving them the appearance almost of fairy land. The occasion was a reception in honor of Miss Virginia Bowman, the beautiful and captivating niece of the host, and memories of it will linger long and lovingly with all who attended. Miss Bowman was elegantly attired and received and entertained her guests with a charm and gracefulness of manner that further fascinated her numerous admirers. Mr. Thomas M. Oweley assisted her and did full honor to the occasion and the lovely little hostess. The parlors were beautifully decorated and the odor from the plants and flowers filled them with delicate perfume. The ladies vied with each other in loveliness and the sweet strains of music made by Mrs. J. E. Portman added to the charms of the hours, which sped with regretted rapidity. Ices, cake and fruits excellently prepared were elegantly served at midnight and in them Mrs. Reid's practiced hand was apparent. Mrs. Mary Bowman assisted Mrs. Reid in adding to the pleasure of the guests and when they left at the wee sma' hour of 2 the heartiest expressions of gratitude were made to them for the evening of unalloyed happiness. It was an elegant affair in all its appointments, not even the slightest thing being left undone that could in any way add to the enjoyment of the large party that attended.

Homing pigeons.—A few ago Mr. N. E. Deane, of Mt. Morris, N. Y., shipped seven beautiful homing pigeons to Depot Agent, J. S. Rice, with instructions to liberate them at 6 A. M., standard time, yesterday. As if they knew that they were to start on a long journey, the sensible little creatures each took a drink of water before leaving the cage. They flew directly upward then hesitated a moment as if spying out their route, and gracefully sailed away to the North-east.

The Caledonian Society will give a public entertainment at the court-house Aug. 4. Mr. W. S. Burch will deliver the welcoming address and the debate will be on the question "Whether the love of fame is a stronger motive in human affairs than love of money." To be affirmed by J. L. Beazley, W. H. Shanks and T. W. Jones and negatived by S. W. Menefee, Richard Bush and E. C. Gaines. He stands high socially, but alas, he is poor, which is a very serious objection.

ORDER OF ELECTION.

SEPTEMBER 1, 1894. Lincoln County Court Held July 9, 1894. Hon. W. E. Varnon, Judge, Presiding. The election submitting to the voters of the City of Stanford whether or not spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned therein, having become void by reason of the failure of the sheriff to post notice of the same, the petitioners by attorney appeared in open court and filed a copy of the judgment of the Lincoln Circuit Court of W. E. Varnon and others plaintiffs, vs. W. E. Varnon, Judge of the Lincoln County Court, upon a motion of writ of mandamus, a copy of said judgment having been on the day of June 27, 1894, served upon the defendant as judge aforesaid, by his accepting same, the portion of said judgment awarding the writ of mandamus is in words and figures as follows, to-wit: Judgment. W. E. Varnon, Judge of Lincoln County Court, Doth. This cause was submitted by the parties upon their agreed statement of the question in controversy and of the facts on file, and upon a affidavit on file, and on the motion of plaintiffs for writ of mandamus, notice of which motion was waived by the defendant, and the court being advised is of opinion, and so adjudged that it was the legal duty of the defendant as judge of the Lincoln County Court to order the election asked for by plaintiffs in their petition to said defendant, and that plaintiffs are entitled to the remedy sought by their motion; their motion is therefore sustained, and the writ of mandamus is awarded against W. E. Varnon, Judge of the Lincoln County Court, by which he is commanded at the next regular term of the Lincoln County Court to enter upon the order book of his court an order directing an election to be held in and for the city of Stanford and directing the Sheriff of Lincoln County to hold an election and open a poll therefor at each of the voting places in said city, for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters of said city upon the proposition whether or not spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned therein, the result of said election to be certified to and returned as required by law in the election of county officers.
